

Adoption

Adopt a pygmy marmoset, the world's smallest monkey, so visitors can continue to observe how these tiny monkeys raise their young. Adopt an elephant to show hundreds of people every day how this huge animal moves around and behaves in a group. Or adopt the edible garden so the keepers can feed edible flowers, plants and herbs to the animals. You can also choose to adopt one of the over 500 other animal species, hundreds of trees, works of art, monuments or countless benches present in ARTIS.

Early adopters

ING bank has adopted the lions for more than 30 years.

Hudson's Bay Company is the adopter of the Hudson Bay wolves.

Fort Advocaten, a law firm, has adopted the griffon vultures.

Amsterdam Marriott & Renaissance Hotel has adopted the reticulated giraffe.

Tapir Tape is the adopter of the South American tapir.

Sakata has adopted the Minangkabau House.
